

No.	Dates of Articles (if known)	Page	Article Name (and author if known)
7		1	Emo: the District's early days
		2	Loney's Furniture Store and Undertaking business
		3	Pioneer Days in our District Emo named for Irish counterpart
		4	CNR Depot, Emo – early 1900s (photo) Alexandra Hotel – Emo, 1910 (photo) Presbyterian Church – 1910 (photo) Riverboat, S.S. Agwinda, 1910 (photo)
		5	Tribute to Township of Aylsworth
		6	The Pioneer Doctors of Emo
		7	Tompkin's Hardware through the years Alexander (Piper) MacDonald (1852-1952)
		8	"Piper" McDonald's great grandson will participate in opening ceremonies for Emo's 100 th (by Marlene Deschamps) Norlund Chapel to be part of Emo's 100 th celebration (by Marlene Deschamps)
		9	Emo marks centennial in grand style (by Milt Guba) Family part of Emo history (by Mark Elliott)
		10	A Sentimental Journey (by Marg Jewell) 50 th Wedding Anniversary of Eva Greyneth and Howard J. Costello
		11	Clinton Dunningham returns to RR for the first time since 1943 (by Ken Johnston)
		12	Retracing the steps of your ancestors (by Beth Caldwell)
		13	Museum Corner (by Dorothy Redford) Old time threshing at Both farm a big hit with both residents and visitors (by Marlene Deschamps)
	26/01/2000	14	Chapple's Little Ditty (by Ruth Teeple) Down Memory Lane... (by Neil McQuarrie)
		15	100 years young, CIBC centennial sparks 'trip down memory lane' (by Beth Caldwell)
	10/1972	16	Photos from 100 years young article (continued from page 15) Keep the Reid Team Working for the Rainy River District
	22/09/1999	17	Chapple opens heritage museum (by Mark Elliott)
		18	Photos from heritage museum (continued from page 17)
		19	Kiwanis in the 60's – a new era Municipal snow jobs (by Neil McQuarrie)
		20	Interesting items donated to library archives
	14/06/1973	21	There's Gold in Them There Mason Jars Radio whisked us away (by Neil McQuarrie)

	22	There's Gold in Them There Mason Jars (continued from page 21)
	23	Antique shop still active after 11 years
08/01/1987-1999	24	Site has been picked for new Rainy River Hospital Site dedication... The sun sets on television's Lone Ranger
10/11/1999	25	Education on wheels Gone, not forgotten (by Beth Caldwell)
10/11/1999	26	On the road to freedom (by Beth Caldwell)
10/11/1999	27	Standing guard over the convoy ships (by Beth Caldwell)
	28	Lumber baron's great-grandchildren rediscover their roots (by Mark Elliott) Backus Books Company badge #2339 worn for mural unveiling (by Marlene Deschamps)
	29	Looking back on special moments (by Howard Partnoy) The Babe the best of century (by Ronald Blum)
	30	Plight of the steamship Algoma (by Garry Poling) Past, Present and Future (by Ron MacGregor)
	31	Memoirs of a missionary priest: Rev Ernest Tourangeau wrote accounts of the northern wilderness of 1906 (by Gerry Poling) Honour 'overdue' for flying ace (by Helen Fallding)
	32	Honour 'overdue' for flying ace (continued from page 32) Glory days
23/02/2000	33	Century of farming heritage, District farmers proud of their roots (by Beth Caldwell)
	34	Century of farming heritage (continued from page 33)
	35	Old-timer always a cowboy at heart (by Jack Tynan)
05/03/2001	36	Old-timer always a cowboy at heart (continued from page 35) '..three!...two!...one!... BOOM'
22/03/2000	37	Family farm a four-generation affair (by Jack Tynan)
	38	Family farm a four-generation affair (continued from page 37)
03/05/2000-28/03/2002	39	Whistle to be installed at old CNR Station, A blast from the past... (by Ken Johnston) Fairbanks Jr. dead at 90 Friendly Giant gone to big castle in the sky
08/05/2000	40	Fairbanks Jr. dead at 90 (continued from page 39)
	41	Real West a reality cheque (by Brad Oswald)
28/05/2000	42	Nation loses hockey hero (by Bill Beacon)