MANDATORY	Topic: Programming	Page: 1 of 1
Date: May 25, 2017	Authorized by:

This policy governs the provision of programs at the Library.

Programming supports the Library's mission to stimulate imagination and inquiry. Programming provides information, invites public discussion, encourages curiosity and creativity, and promotes literacy and reading. Programming promotes the Library's services and resources.

1. Programs are defined as any group activity offered to the public that staff coordinate, plan and/or present.
2. Library sponsorship of a program does not constitute an endorsement of the content of the program or the views expressed by presenters or participants.
3. The Library will:
 - a) make available a wide spectrum of opinions and viewpoints
 - b) select programs based on the interest and need of the community
 - c) use programs to promote interest in, and the joy of, reading
 - d) make programs available free of charge except for fundraising events to benefit the Library
 - e) limit program attendance based on safe use of space, or when success of a program requires it
 - f) make programs open to all, based on a first come, first served basis, either with advance registration or at the door
 - g) not offer programming that is purely commercial
 - h) regularly evaluate the planning and delivery of Library programs
 - i) make available a process for user feedback and expressions of opinions/concerns about programs
4. The library may:
 - a) offer programs for children, young adults, adults, and families
 - b) participate in co-operative programs with other agencies, organizations, institutions, or individuals
 - c) sponsor programs in the library facility or outside of the Library
 - d) promote programs through brochures, news releases, the Library's website, and social media
 - e) allow presenters to display products or books for purchase
