The Rainy River Public Library recognizes that the users' choice of materials they borrow and websites they visit is a private matter. The library will therefore make every reasonable effort to ensure that personal information about its users and their use of library materials, services and programs remains confidential.

1. Personal information is defined in Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. M56 (MFIPPA), in part, as “recorded information about an identifiable individual.” This could include, in the library context, information on a user’s borrowing habits, as well as information related to computer use, including sign-up sheets and information on Internet use.

2. The board ensures that:
 - a) the library complies with the spirit, principles and intent of MFIPPA
 - b) members of the public have access to information about the operations of the library and to their own personal information held by the library in accordance with the access provisions of MFIPPA
 - c) the privacy of an individual’s personal information is protected in compliance with the privacy provisions of MFIPPA

3. The board is responsible for personal information under its control. The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) is the agency’s information and privacy officer, and ensures that:
 - a) the purposes for which personal information is collected shall be identified by the library at, or before, the time the information is collected
 - b) consent of the individual is acquired for the disclosure of collection use or personal information
 - c) the collection of personal information shall be limited to that which is necessary for the proper administration of the library and the provision of library services and programs
 - d) the library will not retain any personal information related to the items borrowed or requested by a user, or pertaining to a user’s on-line activity, longer than is necessary for the provision of library services and programs
 - e) the library will not disclose personal information related to a visitor or a library user to any third party without obtaining consent to do so, subject to certain exemptions as provided by MFIPPA. Information will be disclosed:
 - i. to a parent or guardian of a person up to sixteen (16) years of age
 - ii. upon the presentation of a search warrant

4. Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Notice (to be posted at the library circulation desk):

“The Rainy River Public Library collects personal information under the authority of the Public Libraries Act (RSO 1990, c. P44) and in compliance with the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (RSO 1990, c. M56). The Library will not disclose your personal information except as provided by law under Library Board Policy SE9. The full text of our policy is available on our website (www.rainyriverlibrary.com).”

5. Privacy Waiver (to be completed by all library staff, trustees and volunteers):

“I, the undersigned, agree to be bound by the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Policy of the Rainy River Public Library Board. I shall not disclose information related to library patrons or staff, including borrowing records or personal contact information, unless authorized to do so by the agency. I understand unauthorized disclosure of such information will be treated as a serious disciplinary matter.”
